

Name	Dr. Sidra Farooq
Area of Expertise	Pathology
Department	Pathology
Designation	Assistant Professor, Department of Pathology MCM

Bio/Summary

Dr. Sidra Hamayun is a graduate of Khyber Girls Medical College (KGMC) with Nine years of teaching experience in the field of Pathology. She started her career as Lecturer in the Department of Pathology, Rehman Medical College Peshawar. After completing her M.Phil in Haematology, she was appointed as Assistant Professor in the said college. Currently working as Assistant Professor in Pathology Department, Muhammad College of Medicine. Along with M.Phil she has done a certificate course in Health Profession Education (CHPE) from Khyber Medical University. She is not only involved in teaching undergraduate students but is actively participating in curriculum designing and assessment planning in medical education department. With Five publications in the reputed medical journals of Pakistan, she has the passion to conduct and supervise research for undergraduate students.

Education

- M.B.B.S. Khyber Girls Medical College
- M.Phil Khyber Medical University
- CHPE Khyber Medical University

Distinction

- Gold medal in Pathology 4th year MBBS

Publications

1. PITX3 Gene Polymorphism and its Association with Parkinson's disease in Pakistani Population.
2. Frequency of Jak2 mutation in BCR-ABL negative Myeloproliferative Neoplasms in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. KJMS 2019; 12(03):403-05.
3. Association of increased fibrinolysis with fibrinogen levels and platelets count after coronary artery bypass grafting. KJMS 2019;12(01):08-11.
4. Clinico-pathological features of Hodgkin Lymphoma in patients of Peshawar region. KJMS 2019;12(01):12-15.
5. Comparison of SD ICT kit and Architect for the screening of hepatitis B virus. KJMS 2018;11(03):385-89.
6. Frequency of Helicobacter Pylori Antibodies in patients with Ischemic Stroke. KJMS 2016;12(03):320-322.

Contact Detail

drsidadfarooq@mcmpeshawar.edu.pk